Championing Equality For Women In Every Society.

The feminist coalition is a group of young Nigerian feminists formed in July 2020 with a mission to champion equality for women in Nigerian society with a core focus on education, financial freedom and representation in public office. We have a vision for a Nigeria where equality for all people is a reality in our laws and everyday lives.

In July 2020 Damilola Odufowura and Chibonso Eweri decided to come together to create a coalition of feminist women with a vision of a Nigeria where equality for all people is a reality in our laws and everyday lives.

We approached 12 other exceptional women who were equally passionate about changing our country and the role of women.

Together with these women we became the Feminist Coalition. The Feminist Coalition aims to further the rights of Nigerian women by focusing on three (3) pillars: women's rights & safety, financial equality for women, and political & legislative power for women.

JOURNEY TO END SARS

The Beginning

The Special Anti-Robbery Squad (SARS) was a Nigerian Police Force unit created in late 1997 to deal with crimes associated with robbery motor vehicle theft, kidnaping, cattle rustling and proxenia. It was part of the Force Criminal Investigation and Intelligence Department (FCID) headed by Deputy Inspector General of Police Anthony Ogbin.

The Problem

Extrajudicial killings, framing, kidnappings, road robbery, home arrests, the incision by illegally disposing of human remains

The Trigger I

Efforts to ban the SARS unit progressed in October 2020 after a SARS police officer shot a young Nigerian man in front of the Warieland Hotel in Ughelli, Delta State. Video of the incident started trending on social media, leading to nationwide protests within a few days. The protests quickly expanded from an online hashtag to widespread street protests in a matter of days.

The Movement I

Protesters in Lagos, who were mostly young professionals, were joined by police officers, protesters on the Police, an international news agency arrested Federal Police officers, and protesters demanding the release of the arrested officers, and other demands on them.

The Movement II

Lagos protesters marched to the Lagos State House of Assembly to demand an end to SARS. Several videos shared on social media showed protesters sleeping on the bare ground with no bed or mat overnight as they camped in front of the House of Assembly building.

-OUTSOURCING-

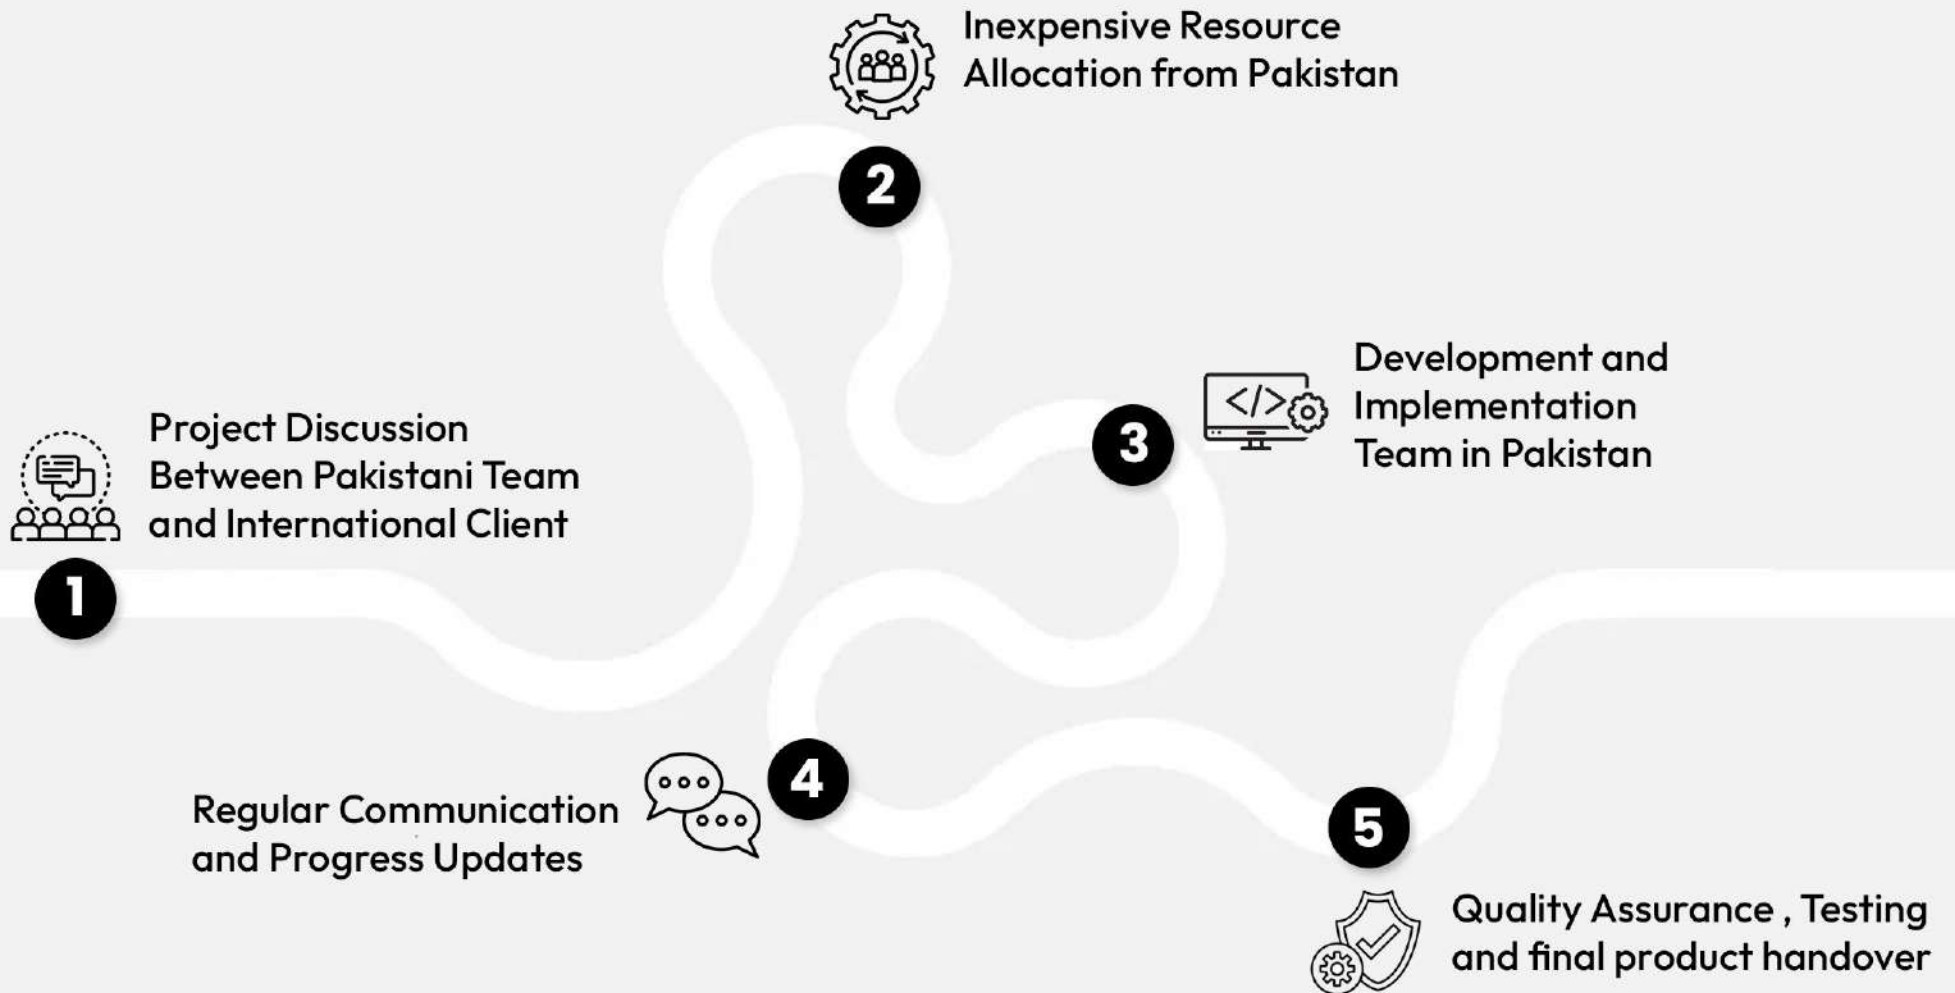

OUTSOURCING

You have the freedom to hire resources of your preferred stack, whether it's for development, design, or any other specialized skillset. We take care of all aspects of resource management, from recruitment to administration, allowing you to focus on your core business activities. Outsourcing to Pakistan is cost-effective and inexpensive as compared to UK and UAE, without compromising on quality or expertise.
